A large, heavy-duty stainless steel container with a lid, likely for industrial or laboratory use. The container is rectangular and features a thick, polished metal construction. The lid is hinged and is shown in a slightly open position, revealing the interior. The container has a sturdy base and vertical supports on the sides, suggesting it is designed for heavy loads. The overall appearance is clean and professional, typical of equipment found in a laboratory or industrial setting.

L'objectif pour l'année 2015 était de sécuriser 1 000 transformateurs. Cet objectif est déjà atteint et même dépassé, car à jusqu'au 14 août 2015, 1008 transformateurs MT et BT ont été protégés.
